

sorenson VRS®

Come Attend an Interpreter Workshop

Critical Thinking Skills for Interpreters Working in the Video Venue

Taught by Rico Peterson this workshop will cover both historical and practical aspects of moral philosophy and decision making with a strong focus on work in video relay interpreting. The workshop culminates with the introduction and application of Think-Aloud Protocols as a tool for critical thinking both collaboratively and on an individual basis. Participants will:

- Demonstrate, by participation in a Think-Aloud Protocol activity, the ability to synthesize theoretical knowledge with practical ability in decision-making and ethical reasoning in video relay interpreting
- Be familiarized with the current issues in video interpreting
- Inquire into the current state of their ability and develop strategies for improving their skills

Cost:

- Interpreters: $20.00, Students: $10.00, Sorenson VRS Interpreters: Free

Sorenson VRS is proud to sponsor the workshop donating all proceeds the Donna Hayes Scholarship Fund.

- Lunch and a brief presentation are provided at no cost to everyone in attendance by the workshop sponsor, Sorenson VRS

Date and Time:

Saturday, February 16th, 2008
9:00 am – 3:00 pm

Location:

Oklahoma State University/OKC community College
RM LRC 100 (Learning Resource Center)
900 Portland
OKC, OK 73107

Contact:

Please pre-register with Susan Nelson at snelson@sorenson.com. Space is limited, please register now.

This workshop is offered for .6 RID CEUs in the Content Area of: Professional Studies. The instructional level is beginning through advanced.

sorensoncommunications™